Description

I. Pécs

A city dating back to ancient times, settled by the Celts and the Romans, it was made an episcopal see in early medieval Hungary. It has the oldest university in the country, and is one of its major cultural centers. It has a rich cultural heritage from the age of a 150-year Ottoman occupation. It is historically a multi-ethnic city where many cultures have interacted through 2000 years of history. In recent times, it has been recognized for its cultural heritage, including being named as one of the European Capital of Culture cities. The Roman-era Christian necropolis in Pécs was inscribed as a World Heritage Site in 2000.

II. Jozsef Bock

Villány winemaker. Winemaker of the year in 1997. He received the Lifetime Achievement Award of the Hungarian Wine Academy in 2024

III. The Hungarian Academy of Sciences is the Vasvári Villa

It is located in Mecsek of Pécs. Italian Renaissance style. The decorations of the building were made in the Zsolnay factory in Pécs.

IV. Tettye

One of the most picturesque landscapes of the city of Pécs with a park, ruins, cave and arboretum.

V. Havihegy

A district of Pécs on the southern side of Mecsek. One of the most beautiful views of the city of Pécs opens from here.
